

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role

Crossing the Tees Live-Tweeter Volunteer

Volunteer Manager

Volunteer Coordinator

Where you will be based

Event

Why we want you

Volunteers like you are at the heart of everything we do. Your skills, experience and time help us achieve our aims

Crossing the Tees Book Festival returns for its tenth year in June 2023, thanks to a collaboration between the library services across the Tees Valley; Stockton, Middlesbrough, Darlington, Hartlepool and Redcar & Cleveland, The festival is hosted in libraries across the region and includes author events and writing and poetry workshops.

What you will be doing

- Live-tweeting from the festival's Twitter account at events to audiences at home throughout the festival

The skills you need

- A can-do attitude.
- Responsibility and reliability.
- Good listening and communication skills.
- Familiarity with the Twitter platform.
- Digital skills - volunteers will be provided with an iPad to use at each session.
- Ability to succinctly tweet along with the event to audiences at home.
- Ability to follow guidelines and instructions.

What's in it for you

- You'll be at the heart of the festival.
- You'll have fun.
- Meet new people and be part of a team.
- Gain confidence.
- Learn about new career opportunities
- Connect with and support your community
- Enhance your CV
- Work alongside our talented writers and performers.
- Attend events free of charge when off duty.
- Participate in RSA's Badge Nation Awards.